

Cryshanna A. Jackson, PhD.

---

One University Ave
Youngstown, OH 44555
(330) 941-2114
cajackson@ysu.edu

EDUCATION

The University of Akron (Akron, OH)

Ph.D. in Public Administration and Urban Studies

Dissertation: Measuring the Impact of Title IX for Women of Color: The Case of the University of Akron

West Virginia University (Morgantown, WV)

M.S in Sport Management

Miami University (Oxford, OH)

B.S in Health and Sport Studies with a marketing minor

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Youngstown State University

August 2007-Present

Courses Taught:

- American Government
- Public Administration/Public Management
- American Public Policy
- Public Budgeting
- Urban Internship Seminar

Adjunct Professor, Sport Science & Wellness Department, The University of Akron

Summer Session III 2006

Course Taught:

- Introduction to Sport Sociology

Upward Bound Teacher, Kent State University

Summer 2006

Course Taught:

- Sport in Society

Adjunct Professor, Division of Health & Physical Education, Baldwin Wallace College

Spring Semester 2006

Course Taught:

- Legal Issues in Sport Management

WORK EXPERIENCE

Project Coordinator/Office Manager, Mount Calvary Baptist Church

January-August 2007

Responsibilities:

- Implemented policies and procedures to make the church and all its entities ran efficient and effectively.
- Organized various components to initiate, run and conclude major projects and programs
- Coordinated schedules and activities, tracked progress and results, and managed administrative assignments.

Research Assistant, Institute for Health and Social Policy, The University of Akron

August 2002-December 2006

Responsibilities:

- worked on external evaluations of two federally funded drug treatment and recovery programs.
- located and contacted clients
- conducted interviews
- analyzed data
- collected research
- assisted with the writing of annual reports
- served as a liaison with outside agencies, participating in program meetings
- traveled to conferences in connection with grants
- worked on the evaluation of the Joy Dance program (designed to raise underprivileged children's self esteem through dance)

Graduate Assistant, Athletic Business Office, West Virginia University

Aug. 2001-Aug.2002

Responsibilities:

- served as a liaison for the Student Athlete Advisor Committee (SAAC)
- updated policy and procedure manuals
- assisted in coordinating the 2002 NCAA gymnastics competition

PUBLICATIONS

Jackson, C.A. (2006) Looking for a federal job? Journal of Public Management & Social Policy, 12, 85-87.

Jackson, C.A. (forthcoming). Case Comments: Flirting with Disaster. Journal of Public Management & Social Policy.

GRANT ACTIVIITY

- Program Evaluator for federally funded Improving Teacher Quality Grant (Summer 2008)
- Grant reviewer for Ohio Tobacco Foundation (December 2007-February 2008)

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

Conference of Minority Public Administrators Annual Conference

February 13-16, 2008, Hamilton, Bermuda, presented a paper entitled "Examining the University of Akron's Compliance to the Three-prong Test Under Title IX NCAA Gender Equity Rules"

The State of the State Conference Annual Conference

March 15, 2007, Cleveland, OH presented a paper entitled "The Promise of Social Equity in College Athletics."

Diversity Lecture Series

February 22, 2007, Westchester University, Westchester, PA presented a lecture entitled Can College Athletic Departments Provide Social Equity Under Title IX.

Conference on Undergraduate and Graduate Student Research

November 17, 2005, Akron, OH at The University of Akron Student Union presented a paper entitled Tracking and Locating Strategies in Program Evaluation.

Women and Sport: Before During, and After Title IX

February 2-6, 2005 Bowling Green, OH at Bowling Green University presented a paper entitled How has Title IX Impacted African-American Female Athletes?

National Association of African American Studies National Conference

February 16-21, 2004, Houston, TX presented a paper entitled The Impact of Title IX on African-American Females in Division I College Athletics.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Diversity in Academia workshop participant (American Society for Public Administrators annual Conference, April 2, 2005)
- Certified GAIN-I site interviewer
- Center for Substance Abuse Treatment Targeted Capacity Expansion HIV and HIV Outreach Grantee Meeting participant (Mar. 29-31, 2005) Washington, D.C.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- American Society of Public Administration (ASPA)
- Conference of Public Administrators (COMPA)
- Women's History Project of the Akron Area Board Member- Secretary

SERVICE TO THE PROFESSION

- Member of the Editorial Board The Journal of Public Management and Social Policy (2008-present)
- Speaker at the University of Akron's 1st Annual Graduate School Colloquium, Akron, OH (April 16, 2008)
- Panelist "Religion, Race, and Gender, in American Politics" Sharon, PA public library (April 12, 2008)
- Keynote address, the YMCA, Young Women with Bright Future Award Ceremony, Boardman, OH (March 8, 2008)
- Panelist "Selected Black Faculty Research Showcase" YSU (February 25, 2008)
- Panelist "Socialization in the African American Community" YSU (February 4, 2008)
- Panelist "National Academy of Public Administrators" panel on social equity held in Washington D.C (September 14, 2007)
- Keynote Speaker, Triedstone Baptists Church, Black History Month youth celebration (February, 2007)

COMMITTEE SERVICE

- Strategic Planning Sub Committee 2007-present
- Pan African Advisory Committee 2007-present
- COMPA Scholarship Committee 2007-2008

HONORS AND AWARDS

- The Chancellor's List 2004-2005
- "President's Letter of Commendation for Excellence in Research" presented by The University of Akron Conference of Undergraduate and graduate research (Oct. 21, 2004)
- "Outstanding Woman Student" presented by the University of Akron Women in Higher Education (April 7, 2003)